November 3, 2016

Dear Friends,

Here are a few reminders about upcoming events you may want to attend:

- Saturday, November 12, noon, Golden Corral
It's our Abbott Institute Annual Meeting, as well as our monthly Unity in Diversity Luncheon. At the meeting, members in good standing will be asked to ratify the slate of members for the incoming Board of Directors. The slate consists of LaTanya Abbott-Austin, Carolyn Carver, Frank Chu, Ethel Daniels, BriAnne Dixon, Georgia Golden, Diane Knight, Andrea Lawson, and Bruce Whitmore. And you won't want to miss our guest speaker, local historian, Tyler Bagwell. He will share stories and drawings of indigenous people of the South.
- Thursday, November 17, 4:30-6:30, Conference Center, College of Coastal Georgia
The Abbott Institute is partnering with CCGA to present "The BIG Conversation." A guest diversity specialist, Justin Brown of Indiana University of Pennsylvania, will facilitate an interactive discussion among attendees aimed at increasing cultural awareness, understanding, and communication among people of varied ethnic, racial, and religious backgrounds. Light refreshments will be served.
- Friday, November 18, 8:00-9:30, 1710 Gloucester Street
Jazz & Poetry Showcase, with Cedrick Frazier, Musical Director. Various artists perform for an appreciative and diverse crowd.
- Until Monday, November 21, Glynn Visual Arts, 106 Island Drive, SSI
(Please note corrected address; was incorrect in Fall Newsletter.)
See Kevin Pullen's astounding sculpture, "Robert S. Abbott and His News Boys."

With best wishes,

The Abbott Institute Board of Directors
